

Be in Buffalo

Thanks to a strong base of well-educated and skilled employees, a low cost of living, and robust access to both U.S. and Canadian markets, Buffalo Niagara has remained a strong and stable business region. But don't take our word for it. The region's assets are repeatedly recognized by leading business experts at publications such as Forbes, Travel & Leisure, J.D. Power, and Entrepreneur.com.

BUFFALO
RANKED 10TH
HAPPIEST
CITY TO WORK IN

- Forbes, January 2016

RANKED #1
U.S. MARKET FOR MILLENIAL
HOME BUYERS

- Realtor.com, 2019

RANKED 2ND MOST BOOMING
STARTUP ECOSYSTEM

- Entrepreneur.com, 2017

BEST MEDIUM SIZED AIRPORT

- J.D. Power, 2018

RANKED #1
FRIENDLIEST
AMERICAN CITY

- Travel & Leisure, 2017

#1

BEST CITY FOR A FRESH START

- Lending Tree, 2018

2nd Most
UNDERRATED CITY

- Travel & Leisure, 2017

3rd FAVORITE
FOOD CITY

- Travel & Leisure, 2017

#11 AMERICAN CITY FOR WOMEN EXECUTIVES

- Citrix ShareFile 2017

“ There's a reason they refer to Buffalo as The City of Good Neighbors. I was originally a bit nervous moving to a new city without knowing anyone in the area, but that quickly faded when I realized the amount of diversity, open-mindedness, and culture that exists here. I have never met people more willing to smile, stop to talk, or just give you directions. ”

- Kyle Mulcahy, M&T Bank, Vice President – Sr. Process Analyst, Customer Delivery